

For a better together.

teamecho

What is teamecho?

teamecho is a digital mood barometer that gives employees a strong voice and managers a basis for decision-making. For a better together! You can give your honest feedback in regular, short surveys. Anonymously, of course. Get involved - your feedback counts.

Improve together

With your feedback, you help to develop measures that improve the organizational climate.

Minimal effort

Each survey consists of a couple of questions that you can answer in a few minutes.

Maximum anonymity

Your results and comments are immediately encrypted and anonymized. They are not traceable at any time.

Just ask

Get the invitation email, complete a short survey & provide honest feedback

Just listen

Lead open discussions & find solutions together

Just care

Are measures being implemented? You don't know? Just ask.

Take your chance and participate.
For a better together!
